

Parker, Cornelius A. (1870-1949)

Diaries, Erving and Millers Falls, MA and Newfane, VT; 1879-1894

14 vol.      manuscript      10 cm to 19 cm

Diaries, journals, and accounts kept by Cornelius A. Parker of Erving and Millers Falls, Mass., and Newfane, VT, 1879-1894. The first diary begins when Parker was eight years old; in that and subsequent diaries and journals he records the weather, books he read, visits with family and friends, trips to Lake Pleasant, work in his father's machine shop, teaching (in Newfane, VT), and his marriage and wedding trip (in 1894).

For a description of the contents of each volume, refer to the guide located with the items.