

Nims, Norman Granville, (1868-1935)

Journal, 1890-1927. [Cambridge, Boston, New York]

1 vol. mss. 34.5 cm.

Diary begun when Nims was a senior at MIT studying architecture. The Boston firm for which he worked did the rebuilding of the State House (entry for July 3, 1896). He worked for McKim, Mead and White and other New York architectural firms.

Sources of religious inspiration, 1890-1898 [Boston]

1 vol. mss. 21.5 cm

Diary of church services attended.